

Equality and Diversity Policy

Updated 03.09.2022

1. Introduction

Les Crocodiles is committed to promoting a supportive and inclusive culture for all of our consultants, customers and learners. We aim to ensure that no job applicant, employee, customer or learner experiences less favourable treatment on the grounds of race, colour, nationality, religion, ethnic or national origin, age, gender reassignment or parental/marital status, sexual orientation or disability. By integrating individual strengths, we will maximise efficiency and creativity, and deliver greater customer service.

2. Aims

Les Crocodiles will work to ensure that consultants are:

- Treated fairly and without discrimination, commencing with the recruitment process and have access to promotions when available based on merit.
- Fairly appraised and rewarded for personal contributions to the organisation, taking into account internal and external comparisons and affordability.
- Able to work in a healthy and safe environment free from hazards.
- Able to access opportunities for training and development to develop to their full potential.
- Supported in balancing work and home life commitments and have requests considered objectively.
- Treated with dignity and respect in a fair and consistent manner in an environment where inappropriate behaviour is not acceptable.

3. Roles and responsibilities

Les Crocodiles is committed to promoting equality for all. If a consultant feels they have been subject to discrimination, which is in direct conflict with our commitment to equality of opportunity, they should raise this with a trustee.

All consultants have a responsibility to treat others with dignity and respect. If a consultant is found to have acted in a deliberately discriminatory manner, appropriate disciplinary procedures will apply.

All consultants, customers and learners will be informed that an equality and diversity policy is in operation and are bound to comply with its requirements. This policy will also be drawn to the attention of funding agencies, stakeholders and job applicants through appropriate communication channels.

It is expected that when contractors are representing Les Crocodiles in an external capacity and as part of their role, that they will endeavour to ensure that equality and diversity principles and practices are adhered to.

The Equality Act 2010 has 9 protected characteristics, which are:

- age
- disability
- gender reassignment
- marriage and civil partnership
- pregnancy and maternity
- race
- religion and belief
- sex
- sexual orientation

Under the Act people are not allowed to discriminate, harass or victimise another person because they have any of the protected characteristics.

Les Crocodiles will also give due regard to reducing the inequalities of outcome which result from socio-economic disadvantage.

4. Monitoring and Evaluation

Les Crocodiles will regularly evaluate its services and the effectiveness of its equality and diversity policy.

5. Review of this Policy

Les Crocodiles is commitment to equality and diversity will ensure this policy is an active one. This document will be amended on a regular basis as part of this active commitment.

Les Crocodiles will seek to keep up-to-date with new developments in Equality and Diversity practice and actively seek information on this issue.
